1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on December 9, 2004 has been entered.

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-6, 8-10, 12-17 and 23-32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Wheeler et al (5,258,197).

Applicant is referred to the reasoning set forth in paragraph no. 3, Paper No. 072804.

4. Claims 18-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Grey et al(5,192,262) in view of Wheeler et al.

Applicant is referred to the reasoning set forth in paragraph no. 4, Paper No. 072804.

5. Applicant's arguments filed November 8, 2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Finding the optimum amount or concentration of the structured triacylglycerols, such as those claimed by applicant, would require nothing more than routine experimentation by one reasonably skilled in this art. Further, said claimed amounts and concentrations are typical softener or fat amounts used in chewing gum.

Combining Wheeler et al and Grey results in lowering the calorie content of Grey's gum, which is desirable for many consumers who want to lower their caloric intake. This, the triacylglycerols of Wheeler are low calorie replacers for fat.
